PLASTIC SURGEONS®

I have been using patientNOW in my practice for four years and love the way it has simplified my life!

Time is at a premium, states Dr. Andre Aboolian, a private practice plastic surgeon in Southern California who performs reconstructive, cosmetic and post-bariatric surgical procedures.

I like patientNOW because it automatically handles many of the details in my practice. I can focus on what is important to me: providing excellent patient care. patientNOW lets me run my business and have time to spend with my wife and children.

“Once you get a taste of patientNOW, you’re hooked.”

— Dr. Aboolian

My practice has gone virtually paperless. I like that I am being environmentally friendly at the same time. I provide 6-7 consultations per day and the system is intuitive, easy-to-learn and automated, giving my staff and me more time to focus on patients.

I am appreciative of the “superior” customer support patientNOW provides. I pick up the phone and get an answer to a question right away.
